LET'S FINISH OUR JOB WILL BE PLEA OF U. S. IN APRIL

OFFICIALS BELIEVE COUNTRY
WILL RISE TO ITS DUTIES
IN FIFTH LIBERTY
LOAN DRIVE.

The world at large admits that the United States "started something" when we went into war. The treasury department officials at Washington believe that the United States will be ready and willing to "finish it" when the last three weeks in April roll around.

The last three weeks in April are the weeks tentatively set for the Fifth Liberty Loan campaign. And one of the appeals to be made to the public in the sale of the bonds will be the appeal to finish the job. A committee headed by Guy Emerson, director of the Liberty Loan Committee of the New York district, was appointed at a recent meeting of treasury department representatives from the twelve federal reserve districts and delegated to go over the idea and views expressed at the conference with an idea of sifting out of them a basis for a sales campaign in Spring.

Two features stood out prominently as obvious and convincing arguments for the purchase of bonds of the Fifth loan. One was the need for finishing the job we have on our hands. The heavy expenses incident to demobilization, return of the boys and whatever reconstruction or world-policing duties may fall to us from the peace table must be met. The proceeds from the Fourth Loan are unavailable for these purposes as they were spent almost as soon as they were raised.

The other feature upon which particular stress is to be laid, in the opinion of the men outlining the plan, is the investment feature. In previous loan campaigns the prospective buyer has been told repeatedly that bonds were a good investment, the best investment, in fact, but in the Fifth Loan this phase of the issue is to be more clearly emphasized. As an investment the bonds will be particularly attractive from the standpoint of safety because the transition from a war to a peace basis in the nation cannot have any other effect on them than to increase their value.

Greatest Nation Of Wasters Is Reformed By War

THE silver lining of the war cloud was apparent to one man down in New York City long before the signing of the armistice made it visible to all men. And this man saw it from a little different angle.

He was S. W. Straus, New York financier and president of the American Society for Thrift.

"The war has taught us as a people more about thrift than any other one thing which could befall us," Straus said in a recent interview. "We have practically doubled, since the war started, the number of families in the United States who have something put by for a rainy day."

"We had been a most wasteful nation up to the beginning of the war. Before war the number of persons who were drifting on without apparent thought or provision for the future was alarming. Now there must be upwards of twenty millions of our people who own Liberty Bonds. They have either had to save to buy them or have to save now because of contracting to buy them."

Straus defines thrift as submission to discipline, self-imposed. He does not limit its practice to matters of money, but urges thrift in time and in health.

"In the present period of reconstruction," he went on, "and in the future every man, no matter how menial may be his employment, must practice thrift, and every employer must see, first, that conditions are such that his employees can practice thrift and, second, that they do practice it."

Giving up all pleasures and recreations for the sake of saving money is not thrift, according to the Straus view. He says:

"Pleasures which we really enjoy bring us definite returns in increased health and contentment. It is the expenditure of all we have for pleasure—perhaps for pleasure which is not such to us but which is considered the thing by our neighbors—that spells waste and extravagance. We shall never become a nation of tightwads, as the expression goes."

Straus does not believe that the teachings of thrift should be dropped by the government as soon as the Liberty Loan campaign is over next April. He advocates keeping at the lesson the war has taught us, and after making a plan for the teaching of thrift in all schools, he concludes:

"Thrift is the very foundation of all individual efficiency and individual efficiency is the foundation of all success."

U. S. TRADE COMMISSION PROBES MANY LIBERTY BOND SWINDLING CASES

TREASURY AND CAPITAL ISSUES
COMMITTEE SUBMIT DATA—
FAKERS EMPLOY WOMEN.

NUMEROUS cases of fraudulent operations by stock promoters who are alleged to be swindling Liberty Bond owners are before the Federal Trade Commission at Washington for investigation. The commission is having daily hearings at which testimony is being offered by those who have been victimized or their representatives and the commission has invited anyone who has such information to send it in.

The first testimony considered was a list of complaints compiled by the Treasury Department and the Capital Issues Committee. Other data which is to be given the investigators has been gathered by commercial interests.

Be a Sleuth!

When someone tries to sell you speculative or doubtful stocks and securities—

Get his name! Particularly if he tries to exchange his securities for your Liberty Bonds—

GET HIS NAME! Get not only his name, and address if possible, but get all the "literature" he has. Then send it all to

The Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D. C.

The Federal Trade Commission act provides a penalty of a fine or imprisonment for those who fail to report or who falsely report to the commission. The investigation is being speeded up to protect the coming issue, the Victory Liberty Loan.

Efforts of the government to check the swindles being perpetrated by the suave, well-dressed stock promoter have had such a dampening effect on his activities that he is taking refuge behind skirts. Women are now being employed, elderly-looking women with maternal ways which are calculated to disarm suspicion.

The latest warning from the Treasury Department is:

"Do not let the appearance or the dress or the sex of the Liberty Bond scalper disarm your suspicion. No reputable stock sales person will try to trade for your Liberty Bonds. Hold your bonds!"

Greatest of All War Pictures Soon to Be Released by Treasury

The Treasury Department is soon to send out over the country the greatest war picture ever drawn.

It will be called "The Price of Peace" and is an assemblage of the most thrilling of the thousands of feet of film taken by official photographers of the war college who followed the bank from his home to the front and back again.

The film will be released on the Liberty Loan committees and will be shown free.

Insurance Men List Liberty Bonds at Par

The national convention of insurance commissioners recently decided that the auditing of all insurance companies for the year ending December 31, 1918, par would be allowed for all Liberty Bonds.

Financiers see in this action of the always careful and always conservative insurance commissioners a certain indication that the present low prices of Liberty Bonds of the first four issues are only temporary and that the bonds are soon to go above par.

The action should be an incentive to the private owner of Liberty Bonds to hang on.

Liberty Loan Levity

A canny young lad named Calhoun, About as red as a Muldoon, Decided a necktie As groom's gift too reckless. He'll give Mame a Note come next June.

HANG ON

Don't forget! Liberty Bonds are going above par. That is why brokers are advertising for them. Brokers know. Be wise. Hang onto your bonds.

The support of the Fifth Liberty Loan by the American people will be the measure of our welcome to our returning soldiers.
